"10-4 Day" Parade hits Hollywood!

Councilman LaBonge was joined by representatives from the LAPD, the California Highway Patrol and the LA Fire Department for the annual "10-4 Day" Parade through Hollywood. A group of vintage law enforcement vehicles, led by a police escort, made their way to Hollywood Boulevard and the Walk of Fame star of actor Broderick Crawford, who starred in the 1950's television series "Highway Patrol". The vintage car pictured above is an exact replica of the Highway Patrol cruiser Crawford's character used to track down the bad-guys. It's a 1955 Buick Century, lovingly restored by Gary Goltz. The 10-4 Day message is road safety and awareness of cars, motorcycles, bicycles and pedestrians when out on the roadways of Los Angeles. That's a big 10-4
